

Breathe (benediction)

Newsboys

When all is said and all has come undone
When the sun, the moon and stars grow dark
Before the days of youth are left in vain
Before the dust reclaims its own again
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of God
Breathe on me 'til my heart is new
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of life
Breathe on me 'til I'm resting in You
When all is said and all has come undone
Restore the promise I made when I was young
Now unto Him who can keep us from falling
Present us faultless before His glory
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of God
Breathe on me 'til my heart is new
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of life
Breathe on me 'til I'm resting in You
Breathe on, breathe on
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of God
Breathe on me, 'til my heart is new
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of life
Breathe on me, 'til I'm resting in You
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of God
Breathe on me, 'til my heart is new
Breathe on me, breathe oh breath of life
Breathe on me, 'til I'm resting in You
