

Borrowed

Leann Rimes

I know you're not mine only borrowed
Cause you already belong to her least you said so
But I'm starting to believe it ain't the whole truth
Cause when were lying side by side I get the whole you
I want hold out but I hold on even though I know it's wrong
And I don't want give you back
I don't want to give you back
You're the best I'll ever have
And I don't want to give you back
But you're borrowed
Do you tell her that you love her like you do me?
Do you make love to her the way you make love to me?
Well I keep myself alone in case you call tonight
It's pathetic how I lie around and wait all the damn time
It's a short high then a long low every time you have to go
And I don't want give you back
I don't want give you back
You're the best I'll ever have
And I don't want give you back

But you're borrowed
Only borrowed
How much time is left till you don't return?
Don't return
How much time?
Oh what's left till you don't return
Don't return
How much time?

I know you're not mine only borrowed
And I don't want to give you back
I don't want to give you back
You're the best I'll ever have
And I don't want to give you back
No, I don't want to give you back
No, I don't want to give you back
You're the best I'll ever have
And I don't want to give you back
But you're borrowed
Only borrowed

But you're borrowed
