Holes In The Wall

The Electric Soft Parade

There's not enough time
There's no room in this town
To try and move
You've tried me out for now
Don't kill what's left off
You never know it's there
I tried to argue
But now your skin is bare
And I could try to make you mine
But I haven't got the time
To waste it all
On someone like you

You never know it's there
And I tried to argue
But now your skin is bare
And I could try to make you mine
But I haven't got the time
To waste it all
On someone like you

(Ooooh, ooooh)
And I could try to make you mine
But I haven't got the time
To waste it all
On someone like you
And I could try to make you mine
But I haven't got the time
To waste it all
On someone like you

(Ooooh, ooooh)
