Won't You Surrender

Dean Martin

Won't you surrender
If you surrender
I'll never let you go not even for a moment
Won't you surrender to me
And please be tender to me
Because I need you soTime is swiftly flying
Please don't leave me sighin'
There's no denying
That I'm longing to enfold you in my tender arms and hold you tightI feel temptation
And facination
Whenever you are near
You're all that I dersire
My lips are burning for you
My heart is yearning for you
Won't you surrender dearTime is swiftly flying
Please don't leave me sighin'
There is no denying
That I'm longing to enfold you in my tender arms and hold you tightI feel temptation
And facination
Whenever you are near
You're all that I dersire
My lips are burning
My heart is yearning
Won't you surrender dear
