

The Life of a Pirate

Cady Groves

It's not easy to be this complicated
Cause I lose my way, I change my mind and I'm more recently jaded
Or I'll be indecisive and always end up choosing the wrong thing
But I can guarantee you'll never hear me say that all I want's a home, a family, a porch swing

(chorus)

Cause I wanna be a pirate
That's one thing I've decided
It's the only that could ever intrigue me
There's no start or end in sight and I guess I'll have to try it
Worst case I'll get swallowed by the deep blue sea
There's no more tryna fight it
The pain I'll leave behind me
The sweet imperfections of a hot mess of a girl

And I believe in miracles but theres no way that I'll ever fit in
To the modern way of living, It's just not me
Work a, a nine to five live in complacency
And I gave it my all, I tried really I swear
For a girl on her own
But after over-analyzing everything there is here
It's time for my ship and fresh air

(chorus)

And if I know me like I think I know me
I'll try to bargain with myself
I'll tell myself it's really not that bad and I'll try to stick it out
A little longer in society never killed no one
But I can tell you, it's a guarantee that I'll always run
Away from every problem or severed relationship
Cause that's who I am
I wanna be a pirate cause they get to be whoever they want on the deep blue sea
Here I come...
