

The Beaten Path

I Killed the Prom Queen

In this isolation I will drain
To silence this isn't for me
Into the world and apathy
And your guns just taste like the seas
This break that you will save
Force for is the best for me
Every thought is perfect
The simple luck has to breathDon't bother brick, was the fall
Isolation insulate my part
So let the break tear us apart
Isolation insulate my partDon't wait this world between us
And fly in with an ocean of distrust
No one will have and nothing to leave
Just walk within it, ...
Your every thought is perfect
The secret road that you takeDon't bother brick, was the fall
Isolation insulate my part
So let the break tear us apart
Isolation insulate my part
