

Renacer

Helker

The gate you're afraid to enter

Holds the treasures you seek

    Your flesh, my bones

    Young hearts, old souls

The gate you're afraid to enter

Holds the treasures you seek

    Silver and gold

    Young hearts, old souls

This is the death of the subconscious you knew

    Follow the inner voice, follow the truth

    Forever we are bound to this burial ground

    Unless we let the light shine through

        (Reborn)

    My heart it no longer bleeds[?]

        (Reborn)

    I've got the love that I need

Stop wasting your time waiting on misery

    I'm reborn eternally

    When you look in the mirror

    Are you proud of what you see?

    When you look in the mirror

    Are you the person you thought you'd be?

    The gate you're afraid to enter

    Holds the treasures you seek

        Your flesh, my bones

        Young hearts, old souls

    The gate you're afraid to enter

    Holds the treasures you seek

        Silver and gold

        Young hearts, old souls

        Your flesh, my bones

        Young hearts, old souls
