

Trust Me (you Don't Wanna See This)

Lucy Woodward

Yeah

Please just let me stray, look the other way
I gotta do this alone, 'cause I'm the only one here
Don't misunderstand, you're the perfect man
But I'm not ready to go and settle down with you
So close your eyes, close your eyes
I'm not who you think I am, let go, get out while you can
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this
I'll be trying everything, knee deep into anything
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this, oh no
I can't help myself, I feel like someone else
You're gonna thank me someday, I'm saving you the heartache, baby
If you're still around, well I'm slowing down
I might follow you home but don't wait up for me
Just close your eyes, close your eyes
I'm not who you think I am, let go, get out while you can
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this
I'll be trying everything, knee deep into anything
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this
Oh don't put up a fight, please don't kiss me goodnight
This was hard enough to say
No, you can't change my mind
Don't even try it, oh no
I'm not who you think I am, let go, get out while you can
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this
I'll be trying everything, knee deep into anything
Trust me, you don't, you don't wanna see this
Trust me baby, you don't wanna see this
Trust me, trust me, you don't wanna see this
