Someone Before Me

Wilburn Brothers

Someone before me still turns you inside out
When we're together he's all you talk about
You're always wanting me to do the things he used to do
Someone before me sure left his mark on you
I've tried to get inside your heart but I don't have a chance
I can see he's on your mind with every little glance
You're living on old mem'ries my love can't get through to you
Someone before me sure left his mark on you
[piano - steel]
I've tried to get inside your heart but I don't have a chance
I can see he's on your mine with every little glance.
You're always wantin me to do the thing he use to do.
Someone before me sure left his mark on you.
