

Heavy Chains

Loudness

She wants to run, goin' on
Point of no return
No looking back, hope is gone
Just a slow burningLost without love, so she tries
To get all she can
Into the night, desperate eyes
Look for helping handsLike a scream, the siren's call
Now it seems she's lost to all
Moving slow and trapped in pain
Don't run with heavy chainsWhat's left is torn apart
Heavy chains on heavy heart
Her broken life, her broken heart
Broken promises lost and found
Just a knife into her heart keeping her downWhat's left is ripped apart
Heavy chains on heavy heart
Broken pieces of life, broken pieces of heart
Broken pieces of promises lost and foundHeavy chains like a knife cutting into her heart
Keeping her down, ohh, heavy chains
