Kalya Scintilla

I'm feeling what I want to feel
I'm saying what I've said all along
Because I know the things that are important to me
    Because life is too short to be long
    And those thoughts that I've kept inside
    With those words that I could not hide
    Because those times that always remind me
        That all I ever did was try
        So change your tune, one step to make a stand
I want to speak my mind, start my own African tribe
    I'm alone, now run into the deepest pile of shit
    'Cause that's where I'm going to blend in Those choices that I've never made
        With those decisions that once cut me a break
        'Cause after all what's left in the end
        There's something they just can't take
        So take a bow, well, you're not that great
        Go pat your back, go off and masturbate
        'Cause one thing that you know for sure
            Your hand is not a lonesome date
            So change your tune, one step to make a stand
I want to speak my mind, start my own African tribe
    I'm alone, now run into the deepest pile of shit
    'Cause that's where I'm going to blend in
