

I've Tried Everything

Olly Murs

I've tried everything, to get you off my mind.
I've been running round, breaking things, getting into fights (woah oh oh)
(i've tried everything) To get you off my mind. We used to climb Primrose Hill, when it was just the two of us
We used to run up the stairs, on the double decker bus and ohhh..
I can't do that anymore, noo
It just reminds me of before. I've tried everything, to get you off my mind.
I've been running round, breaking things, getting into fights
I don't know what it takes, ooh, i wish we didn't have the thing with us
I've tried everything, everything, it's not enough. I see you girl, across the street, on a sunny afternoon
And if i look, through half-closed eyes, she looks abit like you, and ohhh..
It just reminds me of before, noo
i can't do this anymore. I've tried everything, to get you off my mind.
I've been running round, breaking things, getting into fights
I don't know what it takes, ooh, i wish we didn't have the thing with us
I've tried everything, everything, it's not enough. All the days i missed her, can't break down, can't break up sleepless nights that never end
I wish i could pretend, ohhh.
I can't do this anymore. I've tried everything, to get you off my mind.
I've been running round, breaking things, getting into fights
I don't know what it takes, ooh, i wish we didn't have the thing with us
I've tried everything, everything, it's not enough.
Woah oh oh (Everything, everything baby, to get you off my mind)
I've tried everything, everything, it's not enough.
