

Behind a Smile

Matt Wertz

Cause I don't know what I should do now
When I've exhausted all I know how
Still all of my efforts, they fail me
Leaving me broken and empty
I can't go on, half living this life on my ownCause I'm hiding behind this smile
No, I haven't come out for awhile
See there is this place so empty inside me
I keep hiding behind this smileThere must be some place warmer then here
Because my teeth chatter and I live in fear
But every attempt I attempt just impails me
Leaving me broken and empty
And I can't go on, half living this life on my ownCause I'm hiding behind this smile
No, I haven't come out for awhile
See there is this place so empty inside me
I keep hiding behind this smile
No I'm not okay
No I'm not alright
