

Some Simplicity

Paul Greene

I was thinking of leaving, but since you're here I'll stay.
Coincidence or fate, I could put a bet on each way
And If life is a gamble, then I guess you can't complain
If you're trying to figure out the sum of our days.

'Cos the truth is that I like it here.
Where the cost of a precious day,
Isn't too much for a guy like me.
And darling I want,
I just want some simplicity.
Some Simplicity

We set our standards then above them never climb.
I'm too worried about what I've got to lose most of the time.
But today is different, today I've got wings,
And all I that want to do is sing.

And the truth is that I like it here.
Where the cost of a precious day,
Isn't too much for a guy like me.
And darling I want
I just want some simplicity.
Some Simplicity

'Cos if you're doing what you love,
You'll never work another day,
And all you got to do then
Is try to make a little money that way.

And if that were the case,
Can you afford and more time spent
Doing something that you're not interested in?
'Cos the truth is that you trade it in
For the cost of a precious day,
And that's too much for a guy like me.

And I know I want, Hell yeah
I just want some simplicity.
Some Simplicity
Just a little

Simplicity
