Blame Me

Dropping Daylight

What does it take to satisfy your need for someone to blame?
Your need for a whipping boy.
Now you're asking to take that from me well here's your answer...Blame me (you can do your best to)
Shame me (anything you can to)
Hate me (tell yourself again)
Go save yourself with someone else.Ever since we started you were looking for someone to carry you Ever since you were hurt you've been looking for someone you could hurt too
Now you're trying to find that in me?
Well I'm not your savior.Blame me (you can do your best to)
Shame me (anything you can to)
Hate me (tell yourself again)
Go save yourself with someone else.I'm not too proud to end this with a broken smile, Tear down these walls and throw it away.Blame me (you can do your best to)
Shame me (anything you can to)
Hate me (tell yourself again)
Go save yourself with someone else.
