Of Winter Born

Ignominious Incarceration

Can you hear the sound of silence In the air tonight
Here at the end of humanity we cry for our salvation
We are now at mercy to the unstoppable one
The only escape from this Ending of reality

Outcast by society it will surely never help us
Beg for forgiveness to one of winter born

Banished to frigid planes of eternal winter
Conditions no mortal man could survive alone
A creature most strange although of human form
Once a man, now manipulated far far beyond

Driven insane by the torture of his own self hatred
A state of mind only the cruelty of man could have created

We are now at mercy to the unstoppable one
Beg for forgiveness to one of winter born

Here at the end of it all

We can only pray
And After all, it's all we deserve

Can you hear the sound of silence In the air tonight
Beg for forgiveness to one of winter born.
