Once

Diana Vickers

Here we are, a careful distance
Here's my heart, what's left of it
In this town I used to listen
Once, once, yeah
I had hope, blind faith
I had as much as you can take
I'm only gonna let you kill me once
I'm only gonna let you kill me then some
I'm only gonna let you kill me
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once
Ashes burn the morning after
Only know I'm here to stay
I was sold, I let you see me
That was dumb, but that's okay
Tripping down to your place
What is love anyway?
I'm only gonna let you kill me once
I'm only gonna let you kill me then some
I'm only gonna let you kill me
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
I'm only gonna let you kill me
Who or whatever you do
Don't let anyone love you
Touch them where it hurts
And then you'll leave
I'm only gonna let you kill me once
I'm only gonna let you kill me then some
I'm only gonna let you kill me
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
Once, once, once, yeah
I'm only gonna let you kill me
