Favourite Song

Sami Switch

Man i was so run down hung over and come down searching for reasons to live

Hit stucking great clouds sun up to sun down I live with this freedom within lost in my own mates false so alone hates and myself i knew i became snow booze from snow flakes from substance from roses fuck that for gub on my faith

do you came alone
in a moment of this like my favourite song man i am wronged one no one ever wrong one you knew with the day that we met i cost to your cost down there showed up to show down there showed up three days since i slept i live in a night and i live up to night back in bumpy to visit a friend who knew that i'll find you my angel my light you my life seems to begin again since you came alone in a moment of this like my

favourite favourite song

yea yea yea i will be your rocky when the rock will bite back there zack won't take you no where damn coz im gonna at least survived there you saved me from myself when i was sinking in and i'l give you the word i'l be yea yinkteanet

when you had a stroke were going to post men throgh a private space fibel ozo pino why this seeno make him fly away

Be not in sadness searched for freedom all life i found my keys behind your eyes you get me

peace with me alright you get me stripped from back to school before i find a best friend Find a soul that is so compatible havn't lost and found from my different paths atleast live in a town and lay our spirits sounds like paramparammpaaa..

you're the perfect soul i could dance to old day to my days now
you're are my century here is the key to my soul so we can walk in free...!!
