Life and Death

Terror

So many times left alone
This was my only home
Again down on my luck
This is all I fucking gotYou think it's sad
That I'm still here
Save that shit
'Cause I don't fucking careAll I've seen, all you've taught to me
Forever instilled in me
Say you fucking live for this
What the fuck did you ever give?I gave everything, I gave everything
You know I'll die to keep this alive
'Cause if this ever dies, I fucking die
Life and death for me
