Moviestar

Lost Lyrics

Analyze tabloid lies
From God to art, you need a star
You're in my soul, you're in my mind
I walk on water every nightMoviestar, dunno where you are Moviestar, dunno who you areI love your taste, I love your shape
I love the things about you, all the critics hate
Fill my soul, I once was blind
You turn my water into wineMoviestar, dunno where you are Moviestar, dunno who you areYou don't know what it's like
You don't know what it's like
(Here)
You don't know what it's like
(Here)Moviestar
Moviestar
Moviestar
MoviestarGet me high, you blow my mind
You make my mundane life all worth while
You give me reason, give me rhyme
Do anything for you, just give me a signMoviestar, dunno where you are Moviestar, dunno who you are
Moviestar, dunno where you are
Moviestar, dunno who you are
