I'm Still Crying

Go Sailor

I'm still cryingOne final touch of your hand
But I just don't understand
You're out of sight, out of mind
Not out of my heartThe memory of a kiss
I sit back and reminisce
How we'd laugh a day away
Now my day turns to rain without youWell, I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
'Cause I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
Inside I'm dying
(I'm still, I'm still dying)Should have known from the start
(Crying over you)
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover would break my heart
(Baby, baby, baby, baby)I hold your spirit within
So precious to me since then
Can I hold on to the dreams?
Those sweet memoriesOh Lord, help me to move on Face that my lover is gone
Well, I know it had to end
My lover became a friend
And that's you, that's youWell, I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
'Cause I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
Inside I'm dying
(I'm still, I'm still dying)Should have known from the start
(Crying over you)
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover(All of these nights)

That you left me all alone
(Trying to find)
Got to save my soul(Gonna be fine)
But I'm on my own
(But 'til then I'll still be crying)
But 'til then I'll still be cryingWell, I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
I'm dying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
And I'm still, I'm still crying, yeah-yeahShould have known from the start
(Crying over you)
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover would break my heartWell, I think and I pray
And you show me the way
I'm still, I'm still cryingBut a laugh and a smile
(Crying over you)
Only last for a while
I'm still, I'm still crying
