

How Can A Man With So Many Friends Feel So Alone

Eagles of Death Metal

Sometimes I feel all alone
I know it's such a strange feeling
'Cause I used to have so many friends
The few I have left, I hold them close to my heart
'Cause tomorrow I might be all alone I might be all alone, oh, I might be all alone, ooh
I might be all alone, oh, I might be all alone There are choices to make
But I feel scared and I'm sad
'Cause I'm feeling there ain't no trust at all
Woke up, had it all, then come nightfall
I've got nothing left but heart shaken down Left with nothing at all, oh, left with nothing at all, ooh
I've got nothing at all, oh, I've got nothing at all Please, be there, I'm alone, ooh, please, be there, I'm alone, ohh
Please, be there, I'm alone, please, be there, I'm alone
Please, be there I'm alone
