

Your Skin Looks Good On Me

Behind Crimson Eyes

This new mask I wear was cast perfect from your face.

And now your body lies in roses rotting to waste.I'll dress in your skin and paint myself just like a whore.

You know I could be so much more.

I'll dress in your skin and paint myself just like a whore.

You know I could be so much moreWhile the soundtrack plays dialogue from another scene.

I'll wrap myself so tight in plastic that I can't breathe.I'll dress in your skin and paint myself just like a whore.

You know I could be so much more.

I'll dress in your skin and paint myself just like a whore.

You know I could be so much more.
