

You're A Waste

Be Your Own Pet

I wanted so bad to be your girl
I tried thinking about all the lonely nights I cried
I look back, what a waste of time
Should've realized I couldn't change your mind
Now I'm glad you've got a broken heart
'Cause I've been trying to fix mine from the start
Now I'm glad you've got a broken heart
'Cause I've been trying to fix mine from the start
Now that it's over you act so shocked
Guess you never listened all the times I talked
I gave you countless chances
You never seemed to care, treated me like trash
You thought I'd always be there
You're telling lies to anyone who will listen
You want so bad to be the victim
But what you've gotta see is our relationship
And break up is not a competition
Now I'm glad you've got a broken heart
'Cause I'm trying to fix mine from the start
Now you're acting like Mr. Perfect
To figure out what you did to deserve it
I was not the only one to do things wrong
You've been a dick to me all along
I know what I did was pretty rotten
Now it's like everything you did is forgotten
But go ahead and tell your sob story
All I have to say about it is blow me
Now I'm glad you've got a broken heart
'Cause I've been trying to fix mine from the start
Now I'm glad you've got a broken heart
'Cause I've been trying to fix mine from the start
