Lucky to Love

Figurines

I know a way to make it back, gonna do it right
I know theyre making hearts attack, and I realize
I cant do anything to make them feel all right
I need to wear it out. I hear them sing about, the way to live the way to dieAll I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to make up and break it
All I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to wake up and make it all rightSome days were gonna go astray, heavy and uptight
Eyes rolling in a special way, and I realize
The golden afternoons and voices in the night
I need to hear it out. I know they talk about, the way to live the way to dieAll I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to make up and break it
All I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to wake up and make it all rightAll I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to make up and break it
All I wanna do is to wake up in love with you
And feel lucky to loveAll I wanna do is to wake up and make it
All I wanna do is to make up and break it
All I wanna do is to wake up in love with you
And feel lucky to love
And feel lucky to love
And feel lucky to love
And feel lucky to love
