baby when I caught your eye I could see you start to smile from across the room

(across the room) (I can see you smile)beauty that I can't deny let me take some of your time and just talk to youChorus

You were looking lonely, i was in my zone i approached u slowly, let's get awaywe could tell where this was going, but little did we know You would be my one and only, my happy mistake we took a chance on each other didn't plan to fall in love but when love starts, well u just cant hit the breaksyou were my happy mistake (whoa, whoa)
