Thieving

Chance Bone

Im trying to just forget your face,
I donâ€™t know mine anymore.
Well I found that all about your game, there ainâ€™t nothing you donâ€™t know.

Would you believe, just for a minute
I was undone and I've had a plan
under my thumb

How many days Iâ€™ve been thieving out on the run
And Iâ€™ve had a plan under my thumb

Even starlights shines on a thieve
Never stealing what you mean
Under branches causing like thin
Youâ€™ve did jump the train

Would you believe just for a minute
I was undone and Iâ€™ve had a plan
under my thumb
How many days Iâ€™ve been feeling
I had to run and had a plan under my thumb

Here we are
With all of our friends
We know this house
like the back of our hands
Tho Iâ€™ve tried I canâ€™t understand

Would you believe just for a minute
I was undone and Iâ€™ve had a plan
under my thumb
