

The First Nowell

The Priests

The first NoÃ«l, the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deepNoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l
Born is the King of IsraelThey looked up and saw a star
Shining in the East beyond them far
And to the earth it gave great light
And so it continued both day and nightNoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l
Born is the King of IsraelAnd by the light of that same star
Three Wise men came from country far
To seek for a King was their intent
And to follow the star wherever it wentNoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l
Born is the King of Israelhen entered in those Wise men three Full reverently upon their knee
And offered there in His presence
Their gold and myrrh and frankincenseNoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l, NoÃ«l
Born is the King of Israel
