

Two Crooked Hearts

Langhorne Slim & The Law

I was a fool to think I could get to you
But, honey, sometimes you play the fool tooHey! Maybe that's what happens when two fools fall in love
I've had enough of your foolish loveTwo crooked hearts, two crooked minds, alright
They need one crooked time tonight
Girl! Maybe that's what happens when two fools fall in love
I've had enough of your foolish loveTwo crooked hearts two crooked minds
(Two crooked hearts two crooked minds)
Two crooked hearts two crooked minds
(Two crooked hearts two crooked minds)
Maybe that's what happens when two fools fall in love
I've had enough of your foolish love
