

Dareh Meyod (Live At Madison Square Garden)

O.A.R.

Tuesday's coming my baby
I told you Wednesday morning
It's not too late for us
My bags aren't out the door baby don't you know life's a feeling
But without you it's nothing
It's not too late for us
My bags aren't out the door baby
Tuesday's coming and
I'm not gonna leave you here darling It's a shame you can't hear me
Scream my lungs out believe me
The miles burn me up
I'm living just to watch your fire darling
I'm headed out for the road now
The engines hold me while sleeping
A road might take me away
But its sure enough to bring me home baby
Tuesday's coming
And I'm not gonna leave you here darling Tuesday's coming.
