Radkey

You get in quick to find all over again its too late to learn to fly.
You tell yourself it just don't matter again, your head went under.
You win you loose you fall and climb every little stair that, every last stair you can find.
You tell yourself it just don't matter again, you give it everything that you got.(Chorus)
Super hero's don't die. They just go away.
You never let em belong now as long as they're gone you wish they'd have stayed.
Oh no we don't die. We just go away.
Its all they had to be strong now as long as they're gone you'll wish they'd have stayed, they stayed.
