Born to Die

Leftover Crack

Born to die and you get to sit and watch yer t.v. set believe the lies before yer eyes credit cards & apple pies 50 stars to blind yer eyes 13 stripes to hypnotize free thought is gone you'll never see yer just a pawn you'll die tomorrow but today yer empty dreams just fade away evaporate, dissolve to hate while you survive and wait until a lifeless fate yer stupid lives just piddle on you slave fer others and then your gone i just can't escape the lying the moment we are born we're dying and it's such an ugly sightwe have no rights we have no future
no reasons why
we're born to dieyer dumb self can't appreciate the freedom in my thoughts the weak sense of autonomy when i'm drinking in my squat that empty void was never filled but the dreams of others you helped kill you'll justify, will linger on don't ya know that dreams all die the day your bornwe have no god's there's only ignorant bliss
no reasons why
we're born to die(repeat chorus x1)gone to bed, god is dead lies & truth are in my head your history, society, conformity it isn't me, it's all on you reality, it's what ya do it's what ya take the truth in lies the freedom dies, the mind it numbs, the spirit breaks all our rights, it kills our future our reasons why
we're born to die
we're born to die
