

On The Street Where You Live

My Fair Lady

Freddie: When she mentioned how her aunt
Bit off the spoon, she completely done me in
And my heart went on a journey to the moon
When she told about her father and the gin
And I never saw a more enchanting farce

Than the moment when she shouted, "Move your bloomin'" (interrupted)I have often walked down this street before

But the pavement always stayed beneath my feet before
All at once am I several stories high

Knowing I'm on the street where you liveAre there lilac trees in the heart of town?

Can you hear a lark in any other part of town?
Does enchantment pour out of every door?

No it's just on the street where you liveAnd oh the towering feeling
Just to know somehow you are near
The overpowering feeling

That any second you may suddenly appearPeople stop and stare, they don't bother me
For there's nowhere else on earth that I would rather be
Let the time go by, I won't care

If I can be here on the street where you livePeople stop and stare, they don't bother me
For there's nowhere else on earth that I would rather be
Let the time go by, I won't care
If I can be here on the street where you live...
