Spiderweb

Jimmie's Chicken Shack

Time to scale again the wall
Eight feet move two inches tall
I watch in mirth as she catches prey
I see her work here everyday
Another web in my path that spider lays
I think there, there's nothing to it
Think I'm gonna walk right through itDon't ever give up on yourself
Don't ever give up on yourself
Don't ever give up on yourself
Won't ever give up, I'm youngI've seemed to done it once again
A spider web gets stuck all in my head
I walk through it everyday, it's just the path I lay
If she could catch me in her web
I wonder how many days she would be fed
On the flesh that clings to these lanky bonesDon't ever give up on yourselfDon't ever give up on yourselfDon't ever give up on yourselfDon't ever give up on yourselfDon't ever give up on yourself
Cause I won't ever give up on myself
The circle of humanity is a 3-60
That begins and ends with me
And my endless interactions
With separate entities that make up my family
So what we need is that Aphrodisiac to protect us from the webs
That hang low to hunt are heads
We're not going out like that this time
This time we're going to walk right through itThrow your hands in the air if you know what this is about See, I snatch mics and cross boundaries while the crowd be Jumping around and wilding and getting rowdy
Time to break free of spider webs that surround me
While I chase my density, the beats bring out the best in me
If the spider catches me, then that will be the death of me
Be the sole controller of your mind, you can't escape it
Power is only passed to those who dare to take it
From the spider web

Songwriters
Lemon Che Colovita;Jr Davies;James Chaney;James Edward Mc DonoughPublished by PEERMUSIC LTD. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/