

Caught In The Crowd

Kate Miller-Heidke

There was a guy at my school when I was in high school
We'd ride side by side in the morning on our bicycles
Never even spoken or faced each other

But on the last hill we'd race each otherWhen we reached the racks we'd each go our own way
I wasn't in his classes, I didn't know his name

When we finally got to speak he just stared at his feet

And mumbled a sentence that ended with 'James'I was young and caught in the crowd
I didn't know then what I know now
I was dumb, and I was proud
And I'm sorry

If I could go back do it again

I'd be someone you could call friend

Please please believe that I'm sorryWell he was quite a big guy, kinda shy and quiet
When the kids called him weird he didn't try to deny it
Every lunchtime he'd spend walking by himself

Round the boundary of the grounds til he heard the bellWell one day I found him, joined him on his walk
We were silent for a while until we started to talk

I told him my family were fighting in court

He said his step-dad and him always foughtWe talked about music, he was into punk
Told me all the bands that I liked were junk

I said I'd never heard the songs the sex pistols sang

I laughed back at him and then the bell rangI was young and caught in the crowd
I didn't know then what I know now
I was dumb, and I was proud

And I'm sorry

If I could go back do it again

I'd be someone you could call friend

Please please believe that I'm sorryIt was after school in the afternoon
The corridors were crowded as we came out of the rooms

Three guys I knew pushed him into the cement

Threw away his bag and said he had no friendsHe yelled that he did and he looked around
Tried getting up but they pushed him on down
That's when he saw me, called out my name
And I turned my back, and just walked away

Yeah I turned my back, and just walked awayI was young and caught in the crowd
I didn't know then what I know now
I was dumb, and I was proud
And I'm sorry
If I could go back, do it again

I'd be someone you could call friend
Please please, believe that I'm sorry.
