

Untrustable / Part 2 (About Someone Else)

Built to Spill

you can't trust anyone cause you're untrustable how can you trust someone you know can't trust you you won't help anyone cause you're unusable no one can tie you down no, you're nobody's fool and I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel and I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real and god is whoever you're performing for and god is whoever you perform for you don't like anything cause you're unlikable all because you're not interested in you anymore it's so unthinkable cause you don't think of it how many ideas can fit in your reality and I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel and I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real and I'd love to see it but it's something you just feel
and I'd like to feel it but it just isn't real
and god is whoever you perform for- Pt. 2 (about someone else)
