Toad The Wet Sprocket

Say what I need, I kick you down
No I'm fine, don't you hang around
And I find myself here in another home
    Where everything moves so slow
So tiredTake the longest day, throw it all away
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
    Every day's the same, nothing ever change
I can't stand it but I can't do anythingYou should know by now
    We're all liars
    Take me where you go
Only higherTake the longest day, waste it all away
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
    Every day's the same, nothing ever change
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
    Can't do anythingAnything you want
        Anything you want
AnythingTake the longest day, throw it all away
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
    Every day's the same, nothing ever change
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
    I can't stand it but I can't do anything
I can't stand it but I can't do anythingHere in another home
    Where everything moves so slow
    So tired
