The Other End (Of the Telescope)

'Til Tuesday

Shall we agree that just this once
I'm gonna change my life?
Until it's just as tiny or Important as you likeAnd in time, we won't even recall that we spoke Words that turned out to be as big as smoke
Like smoke disappears in the air
There's always something smoldering somewhereI know it don't make a difference to you
But, oh, it sure made a difference to me
You'll see me off in the distance, I hope
At the other end, at the other end of the telescopeThere was a time not long ago
I dreamt that the world was flat
And all the colors bled away
And that was thatAnd in time, I could only believe in one thing
The sky was just phosphorus stars hung on strings
And you swore that they'd always be mine
When you can pull them down anytimeI know it don't make a difference to you
But, oh, it sure made a difference to me
You'll see me off in the distance, I hope
At the other end, at the other end of the telescopeThere, there baby now, don't say a word (Don't say a word)
Lie down, baby, your vision is blurred
(Your vision is blurred)
Your head is so sore from all of that thinking
I don't want to hurt you now
But I think you're shrinking
(I think you're shrinking)You're half naked ambition and You're half out of your wits
And though your wristwatch always works
Your necktie never fitsNow it's so hard to pick the receiver up
And when I call, I never noticed you could be so small
The answer was under your nose
But the question never aroseI know it don't make a difference to you
But, oh, it sure made a difference to me
When you find me here at the end of my rope
When the head and heart of it finally elope
You can see us off in the distance, I hope
At the other end , at the other end of the telescope

Songwriters

Elvis Costello;Aimee MannPublished by UNIVERSAL MUSIC-MGB SONGS

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/