

After Dark

Lovelorn Dolls

What I left, what I need
What I'm supposed to be
Don't really want it anymore
It's so black in my thoughts
I try some evil charms
Where is the light, the open door
To relieve my heart?
Die now, release me now
Right now, reveal me now!
Die now, release me now
If I'm sincere you'll disappear
Vanishing in the air
And leaving from nowhere
Will there be someone to remind?
When the wounds in my heart
The blows have made me blind
There's the light in front of me
In the afterdark
Die now, release me now
Right now, reveal me now!
Die now, release me now
If I'm sincere you'll disappear
