

Too Far Apart

Markku Mattila

Here in silence I watch the sky
Darkness and coldness surround me
Space and me are just like You and me
Just too far apart, no chance to talk
Oh my love, where are You now when I need You most
My love, do You feel the aching in my heart
My love, why can't we keep going on anymore?
In this emptiness and fear I'd like to hold You near me
But sadness covers me with its veil
And soon I fall in sleep
Oh my love, where are You now when I need You most
My love, do You feel the aching in my heart
My love, why can't we keep going on anymore?
