

Lost and Found

Rich Robinson

The tides are turning, there rolling in,
The seas of past lives tell me where Iâ€™ve been.
Iâ€™ve seen the shelter from deep inside,
And watch my spirit come out and fly.

Chorus

Here with me in this drifting story of our lives,
Iâ€™ll follow you down to the places lost but never found.

So as the telling goes, I wonder what was shown,
To you will be living in this number.
In the deepest part of night I lie awake in awe,
Of paths that lie in front of me.
Are they blocked by fear or apathy,
Unlike an eagle getting water.

Chorus

Here with me in this drifting story of our lives,
Iâ€™ll follow you down to the places lost but never found.

(Double intro lick) ad lib lead

Here with me in this drifting story of our lives,
Iâ€™ll follow you down to the places lost but never found.
Youâ€™re here with me, youâ€™re here with me, youâ€™re here me
Youâ€™re here with me in the places lost but never found.
