JFK

JFK

You smell like a million roses bathed in rock'n'roll Ours was the greatest love story ever told Throat like an angel with a voice that was made of gold That's my babyHe was the king of the town with a crown that would never fall
A heart that would beat like a bass for his baby doll
One in a million, inimitable soul
Thats my babyYoung or old, summer or cold
Young or old, summer or coldYouve got a way like JFK
When you do it
The way that you move it
Spins me around like a record, baby
And youve got a soul like no one I know
Youre so new at it
The way you see through that shit
Breaks my heart and it drives me crazyHe was the king of the town
with a crown that would never fall
A heart like a bass that would beat for his baby doll Mind like a diamond, an unimitable song
Thats my babyYoung or old, summer or cold
Young or old, summer or coldYouve got a way like JFK
When you do it
The way that you move it
Spins me around like a record, baby
And youve got a soul like no one I know
Youre so new at it
The way you see through that shit
Breaks my heart and it drives me crazyIt drives me crazyYouve got it and I want it Late summer nights in July, flaunt it You know that you can always come home to the one who gave you your name Cause I see a light in your eyes
Its so bright and the skies, they open wide for you

So come to me, my babyYouve got a way like JFK
When you do it
The way that you move it
Spins me around like a record, baby
And youve got a soul like no one I know
Youre so new at it
The way you see through that shit
Breaks my heart and it drives me crazyIt drives me crazy
It drives me crazy
Crazy
