Lift Me

Treasure Fingers

Feel like i'm falling down Feel like im falling down again Somebody lift me Somebody lift me
Feel like i'm falling down Feel like im falling down again Somebody lift me Somebody lift meAs i sit in my room these walls seem to cause me to pause no fans no applause im lost i fall to the bed in my draws thinking thinking somethings that make me realize ive gone way down way down to the deep end reaching with nothing to grab these songs aint pumping the gas how long do it take for a dream to come true man i swear im just tossed as a crab in a bucket but it aint number six feeling like bozo but i keep trucking in slow mo man life is a slow poke but i did hold no grudgesFeel like i'm falling down Feel like im falling down again Somebody lift me Somebody lift me
Somebody lift me Somebody lift meThis feeling creeps like a thief all he left was doubt and stole belief my excuse is gone i could use one now please dont bring me up just to bring me down (ayy ayy) is stress or is it depression cause it sure dont feel like a blessing dont feel like it came from the essence feel like somebody shot my intestines destined for the sadness of the world and my hearts been darkening lately me and my girl been arguing broke up now its worst then the arguments how we get so far from the start of it so bad now we mite never talk again asked god why my life being targeted swear he replied like i aint got no part in this so i brought up the pin and exscape from the thoats in my brain leave em tossed on a page with the strongest intention all day i done fought in a rage feeling lost in a cage and im cought in suspension so tired of this roller coaster one minute im cool next minute im close to tears i bet regret is coming to get me a cell made of sorrow somebody lift me im falling down againFeels like i'm falling down im falling down again
