Cellar Darling

The sun was set
the light
the moon will call to arms
in the hours of night

Face the shame
rule the world
I can't deny it
I wish I was your fool

Lie for our leaders
as they burn the vacant stakes
come, douse the flames
smoke of the fear of the falling sky thereupon, run the gaunt, anyone, plead to leave utopia, fraudulent utopia

the light

Then the race
bleed 'til it hurts
we won't engage you
but break away

thereupon, run the gaunt, anyone,

the light
