The Devil Wears Prada

These writings are to those who have weeped
These writings are to those who haven't looked deeply enough
Into the correct resolutionWrong again but stronger now, we can face this Fight life with life, fight life with lifeAll glory to the One in existence
Bring upon Your name, Your grace, Your everything
All glory to the One in existence
Bring upon Your name, Your grace, Your everythingHold hands and stare into the circle
What are we looking at?Rumors and rumors and rumors
Rumors and rumors and rumors
Assembly, disintegration
Rumors and rumors and rumors
Perish, perish, perish, perishTombstones serve as mirrors and the graves are infinite
Take a look through the lens and through your eyes
End the partitioningWrong again but stronger now, we can face this Fight life with life, fight life with lifeFight life with life, life
Enemies, we'll go for your throat
