

Rainclouds

Beckett

I sit and wonder why
Rain clouds fill the sky
    She is in my mind
I just can't understand
I just wring my hands
Thinking of her now
But she's so far away
I just hope and pray
    I'll see her face someday
And if I go, I'll go tomorrow
Take the sadness from my eyes
    Unveil the cloudy skies
And let the sun shine bright
    Into our troubled world
With all its hate un-twirled
    Love is the only way
    Into a better life
    Free from toil and strife
    As all our lives unfold
And look towards a new tomorrow
    But if I go I'll go tomorrow
    And if I go I'll go tomorrow
    So I sit and wonder why
    Rain clouds fill the sky
    She is in my mind
I just can't understand
I just wring my hands
Thinking of her now
But she's so far away
I just hope and pray
    I'll see her face someday, yeah
And if I go I'll go tomorrow, oh oh
    And if I go I'll go tomorrow
And look towards a new tomorrow
    And if I go I'll go tomorrow
    And if I go I'll go tomorrow
