Deftones

there
bring your time
say goodbye now leave him
my fuse
has expired
fuckin ahhh just leave himpowerless stuck in your web of shame open your eyes
you're only playing yourself whoever's watching
i hope they catch the drift collect your crowd
you're now the queen of themthere that's your life
go and die in the end
loose and defiled
you find what you needed*chorus*
their delusion
don't deny it
don't make this
out to be something about youi'm....? fuckin repulsed by this
while in jail
lock your.....?lock you up to rot in hell
.....?there!
say goodbye!
just in time we needed
used
bad?
save your body no one else willgo waste your breath somewhere to someone new your castles burning down hereyour kingdom is burning down
