The War on Drugs

Thank you once again
I bearly get through it
I can't draw the line
Without falling out the page
I can't hold to this
Without moving out the frame
'Cause There is a trouble in my lips
And a witching in my eyes
And it's all 'cause of you
So take the colors off
They been keeping off the dust
Steady down the arms
Hold down sudden caught
I see you in the dark
See you dancing with the lights
Caught in me in your breath
Tracing so you know

And it's all 'cause of you
Oh follow from the ride
Where it goes
Somewhere down the hall
In throught your hands
Out your mouth
In a whisper
In through the walls
Where you start
Tell me what's the time
'Cause all is melting lines
Keep us way to slow
So baby let it out
Let it burn into the sky
Watch it as it goes
Say you Trust me that I know
That is all because of you
