What Are You To Me?

UNKLE

(Day dream...day dream...)
Day dream...(day dream...)So many times i've overflowed
So many faces come and go
I play my cards into the sun
and try to work out
What you are to meTo meBeen here before
A million open doors
Only one will set me free
So i fall against the wall
And try to work out
What you are to me, to me, to me, to me...To me.....Inside my eyes
The answer lies
Something i can't see
Another day
Another way
It's the same to me, to meTo me..., to me..., to me...(what's wrong?)To me... (to me...)
To me... (to me...)
To me... (to me...)
To me... (to me...)
