

Love In Cold Blood

Him

Serpentine love's thighs wrap around me
In search for death
Drenched in blood the adored and beloved
Will give in to Love in cold blood
Breathe me in sweet suffering
Love in cold blood Love's feline eyes in darkness
Shine on her web
Demonized with divine insight
We draw our last breath Love in cold blood
Breathe me in sweet suffering
Love in cold blood
Put me out of mystery Love in cold blood
Breathe me in sweet suffering
Love in cold blood Darling take me home
To the castle made of skulls and bones
Sing me a song to remind me where I belong
In your arms, my love, in cold blood Love in cold blood
Breathe me in sweet suffering
Love in cold blood
Put me out of my misery Love in cold blood
Breathe me in sweet suffering
Love in cold blood Darling take me home
To the castle made of skulls and bones
Sing me a song to remind me where I belong
In your arms, my love, in cold blood
